TA: Dominic
Team members: Kelly (kellypet) , Chae (chae_93), Peitong (pduan)
Agreed Deadline: 11/16/14

Team Goal: To submit a fully working project in time.

● How much time per week do you anticipate it will take to make the project successful?
~5 hours a week outside of class.
● How will work be distributed?
We can decide on the general structure/idea of implementation in class, then implement separate classes outside of class separately.
● How will deadlines be set?
We have all our individual code done/tested the day before the deadline. Doing the final group checkin/
submission on Tuesday night before final submission on wednesday.
● How will you decide who should do which tasks?
Talk it over/ have people grab the class/method they're most interested in.
● Where will you record who is responsible for which tasks?
Google drivekeep
the state, completion status.
● What will happen if someone does not follow through on a commitment (e.g., missing a deadline, not showing up to meetings)?
If they miss a deadline, we can discuss using a deadline to rebalance work and decide by when code should now be completed. Upon second failure, other team members may speak with a ta.
● How will the work be reviewed?
people should write testcases for code they write and go over their code and testcases during a meeting.
● What happens if people have different opinions on the quality of the work?
if something is legible and a test case can't be written to exploit 'vulnerabilities' it's fine.
● What will you do if one or more team members are not doing their share of the work?
if someone does nothing, we can talk with a ta.
● How will you deal with different work habits of individual team members (e.g., some people like to get assignments done as early as possible; others like to work under the pressure of a deadline)?
We will follow the internal team deadlines for getting tasks done.
Decision†Making

● Do you need consensus (100% approval of all team members) before making a decision?

● What will you do if one of you fixates on a particular idea?
